The universal call to holiness reminds us that we are called to sainthood.

We accomplish this by adopting the mind and heart of Jesus as expressed in the Beatitudes' values.

"Let the grace of your baptism bear fruit in a path of holiness." (n. 15)

Rejoice and Be Glad, Pope Francis

be saints

Creator God,
You have loved us into existence,
giving each of us a mission,
a purpose, a call to holiness.

We give you thanks for the saints,
our models for a good and holy life.

They teach us holiness is a call that belongs to everyone.

Through their intercession, we ask you to fill us with courage and strength to respond to and embrace that call by carrying out our daily duties
–in school, at home, at work–cheerfully, to the best of our abilities and with great love for you.

Following the example of the saints that came before us,
may we become the saints of today.
Amen.

The Best Kept Secret of the Catholic Church

The Beatitudes have a social dimension that guides us in our communal lives. The church's social teaching is a "treasure of wisdom about building a just society and living lives of holiness amidst the challenges of modern society" (USCCB). Being holy has a personal and a social dimension and we are called to respect all humans as God's children. Pope Francis includes addressing issues of social injustice as part of developing holiness and identifies as sacred the lives of the poor, destitute, abandoned, underprivileged, infirm, elderly, and victims of human trafficking and modern forms of slavery (102). The U.S. Bishops identify 7 themes of the social teaching of the church; we will highlight one of these themes each month in connection with the Beatitude for the month as we challenge ourselves to respond to the Call to Holiness.

Holiness Challenge

*As a family make a list of your blessings. When a family member is feeling down, refer to your list and remind each other to be grateful and happy when following the Lord.

*Ask each family member to state his or her favorite Beatitude, an attitude that accompanies it, and how to live out that Beatitude.

Saint of the Month

Bakhita was kidnapped as a child and sold into slavery. Eventually, she was made the slave-servant for a girl attending a convent school run by the Canossian Sisters in Italy. Bakhita became a Christian and fell in love with the convent, and when the girl's parents came to collect their daughter and her servant, Bakhita refused to leave. She went to court, supported by the sisters, and won, as slavery was illegal in Italy. She then joined the Canossian Sisters and spent 50 years as a religious, dying in 1947. She was canonized in 2000.

Liturgy

Feast of the Presentation of the Lord

February 2 is the feast of the Presentation of the Lord, also known as Candlemas Day. According to Luke's Gospel, when Mary and Joseph presented their child Jesus in the temple, Simeon recognized Him as the Messiah and declared him "a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and glory for your people Israel." (Luke 2:32)
It is an ancient custom of the Church to bless candles on this day – candles that will be used in the coming year for worship and for devotions.

At St. Margaret Mary, there will be a blessing of candles at the 8am daily Mass on Saturday, February 2 in the Chapel. You are invited to bring candles from home that you would like to have blessed for devotional use during the coming year.
