Christmas

December 26, 2016

Did you get presents on Christmas worth sharing? Hmm? Do I really want to share my latest electronic gadget, or my new clothes? Maybe not so much. Well, did you get a “presence” on Christmas worth sharing?

Christmas is a time we acknowledge the very presence of God who became flesh and dwelt among us. As Christians we recognize Christ’s continuing presence in our daily lives and especially in the Eucharist. Look in this week’s email for opportunities to share Christ’s presence with those around you, especially those in need.

Quote of the Week

"I see the church as a field hospital after battle."

- Pope Francis, from an interview with Antonio Sparado, S.J.

Question of the Week

"As we celebrate the birth of Christ among us, how do I share his presence with others, especially those in need?"

Regardless of the number of our possessions, we are all in need. We all carry the wounds of battle.

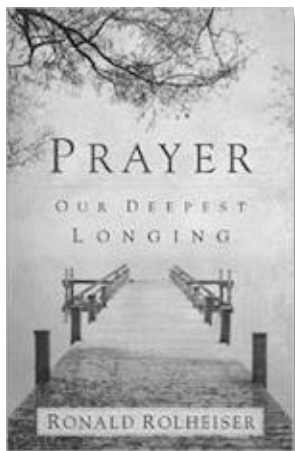

God did not create just one, totally self-sufficient human being. The world he envisioned contains many interdependent people.

We are part of a mutually dependent family because we have God as our Father.

Helping our brothers and sisters is not an act of heroism. It is what one family member does for another.

Recognizing our mutual dependence is an important way to celebrate Jesus' birth as our Brother - at Christmas and throughout the year.

New Items:

Prayer: Our Deepest Longing

By Ronald Rolheiser, O.M.I.

Chapter Three - Understanding Priestly Prayer

"Part of our Christian faith. . . is the belief that our unity and community with each other in Christ is so real, so deep, so physical, and so mutually interdependent that we constitute not an aggregate or a corporation but an organism, a living body."

Through our Baptism we all share in a priesthood of people who have a mutual responsibility for each other. That responsibility underlies our prayer - whether the devotional prayer we say in private or the liturgical prayer we say as members of a universal church. In chapter three Father Rolheiser calls our prayers a "symphony of prayer." Each prayer and every person who pray make an important contribution to the world.

Christmas Message from Father Walsh

While driving past one of the local churches the other day I caught a fleeting glance of a billboard which read, "Wise men still adore him." We all know that the world in which we live today is full of distractions. It is so easy to get side-tracked and to live out of a false sense of priorities.

Christmas Thank You

"Behold, I proclaim to you good news of great joy that will be for all the people. For today in the city of David a savior has been born for you who is Christ and Lord... And suddenly there was a multitude of the heavenly host with the angel praising God and saying: "Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to those on whom his favor rests." Luke 2:10-11, 13-14

Special thanks to all liturgical ministers for proclaiming good news and glad tidings, giving glory through your ministry to our God and to the parish community of St. Margaret Mary. Your proclamation is shown through the beautiful environment, liturgies and welcoming atmosphere and wouldn't be possible without the generous service of Greeters, Ushers, Music Ministers, Lectors, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, Sacristans, Projection Ministers, Altar Servers, and the Art/Environment Team. May God bless you during this Christmas season and throughout the coming year.

Epiphany Bake Sale

There will be a bake sale during the display of nativity scenes in the parish hall on January 7 and 8. Best sellers are sweet breads, coffee cakes, cookies, brownies, bar cookies, and fudge. Also, a few cupcakes, whole cakes and pies are always nice.

Wrapped, labeled, and ready to sell is very helpful. Small things like cookies should be grouped into $1-$2 packages. We can also wrap the items for sale, if you prefer. Please label unusual ingredients, especially if they have nuts. Drop off is from 2-5 on Saturday, January 7 at the Parish Hall. ## 12 Days of Christmas

The song, "The Twelve Days of Christmas" is an English Christmas carol. From 1558 until 1829 Roman Catholics in England were not permitted to practice their faith openly. Someone during that era wrote this carol as a catechism song for young Catholics. It has two levels of meaning: the surface meaning plus a hidden meaning known only to members of the Church. Each element in the carol has a code word for a religious reality which the children could remember. The "True Love" in the song is not not a smitten boy or girlfriend but Jesus Christ.

The partridge in the pear tree represents Jesus Christ because that bird is willing to sacrifice its life if necessary to protect its young by feigning injury to draw away predators.

The two turtle doves were the Old and New Testaments.

The three French hens stood for faith, hope and love.

The four calling birds were the four gospels of Matthew, Mark Luke and John.

The five golden rings represented the first five books of the Old Testament which describe humanity's fall into sin and the great love of God in sending a Savior.

The six geese a-laying stood for the six days of creation.

The seven swans a-swimming represented the sevenfold gifts of the Holy Spirit: Wisdom, Understanding, Counsel, Knowledge, Piety, Fortitude, Reverence and Awe of the Lord.

The eight maids a-milking were the eight beatitudes.

The nine ladies dancing were the nine fruits of the Holy Spirit: Charity, Joy, Peace, Patience (Forbearance), Goodness (Kindness), Mildness, Fidelity, Modesty, and Continency (Chastity).

The ten lords a-leading were the Ten Commandments.

The eleven pipers piping stood for the eleven faithful Apostles.

The twelve drummers drumming symbolized the twelve points of belief in The Apostles' Creed.
