

Parish Update

A Weekly Newsletter of St. Margaret Mary Parish

Second Sunday of Lent

March 13, 2017

If we understood the fullness of God's action in existence, we might be overwhelmed by the immensity of our God. In scripture we are told that no one can look at the face of God and live. It is too overwhelming. We are reminded of a certain humility with which we must approach our life journeys. Yet, we have glimpses of God in the creation around us and the miracles we see unfold every day.

Look in this week's email for opportunities to see glimpses of God's face through prayer, sacraments, service and community interactions. Then be amazed at the outpouring of his grace.

Quote of the Week

“The more the universe seems comprehensible, the more it also seems pointless.”

- Steven Weinberg, The First Three Minutes

Question of the Week

“When have you been surprised and humbled by God’s power or grace?”

When physicist and Nobel laureate Steven Weinberg looks at the universe he sees a collection of matter and energy ruled by chance and the laws of physics. He sees no need to imply a purpose behind the entire enterprise. No need for a creator with a plan in mind.

Other scientists look at the ordered complexity of creation and see signs of a creative design oriented toward achieving a purpose.

Both make compelling arguments.

Weinberg ends his book The First Three Minutes by saying, “The effort to understand the universe is one of the very few things that lift human life a little above the level of farce, and give it some of the grace of tragedy.”

There is a kind of dignity in the struggle to understand and confront an impersonal cosmos. But, perhaps with God’s grace we can look at the stars and see something more inspiring and more humbling.

Holy Thursday Foot Washing

The Mandatum

On Holy Thursday, we remember, through the washing of feet, the great command of humble service illustrated by Jesus as he cleansed the feet of the Twelve Apostles. This year, while still maintaining the beauty and simplicity of the institution of the Eucharist on Holy Thursday, the Liturgy Committee has opted to have a smaller representative number of people participate in the foot washing ceremony. If you would like to serve as a representative of our parish community by having your feet washed on Holy Thursday, please register by contacting Lisa Weis at (407) 647-0726 or lisa@stmargaretmary.org.

Human Trafficking Myths and Misconceptions

Myth 6: Human trafficking victims always come from situations of poverty or from small rural towns or villages.

Reality: Although poverty can be a factor in human trafficking because it is often an indicator of vulnerability, poverty alone is not a single causal factor or universal indicator of human trafficking victim. Trafficking victims can come from a range of income levels, and many may come from families with high socioeconomic status.

Protestant Reformation Discussions

Wednesdays, March 22nd and 29th from 7:00 to 9:00 pm

Join us in a two night discussion by Dr. Raleigh (Sandy) Seay, Adjunct Professor of Humanities at Rollins College. 2017 represents the 500th anniversary of what many observers call the Protestant Reformation. Perhaps it should be called Reformations because we can identify at least five streams diverging from this movement. On October 31st, the day that Protestants today commemorate as Reformation Day, Martin Luther nailed his “95 Theses Against the Selling of Indulgences’ on the door of All Saints Church in Wittenberg, Germany.

Our two-night discussion will focus on: What caused this movement? Who were the major players? What were the great issues that propelled it? How did the Catholic Church react to the Reformation? What is our answer to and attitude toward the Protestants who will celebrate this anniversary this year?

Life in the Eucharist Retreat

Friday, March 31st from 6:30 to 9:00 pm

and Saturday, April 1st from 8:30 am to 5:00 pm Mass

The heart of every parish is found in its coming together to celebrate the Eucharist and being sent forth to live the Gospel. In recent times, Catholics have witnessed and lived through an unprecedented reform of their entire sacramental system. The renewal of the liturgy invites Catholics to enjoy full, conscious and active participation in the rites of their church, especially the celebration of the Eucharist.

Come and explore five rich themes of the Mystery of the Eucharist: Nourishment, Reconciliation, Transformation, Abiding Presence and Mission. Baby sitting is available for children 1 to 4 years of age. For more information or to register contact Andrea Cavallere at andrea@stmargaretmary.org or (407) 998-5678. There is no cost for the program.

Family, Friends and Chicken Soup

If you or someone you know cannot drive, Family, Friends and Chicken Soup volunteers can help with transportation to the grocery, medical appointments, bank or other necessary errands. We can also help those who are lonely and in need of a visitor, or help with meals when someone is ill, injured or recovering. Our services are for those who are trying to live independently in their own homes.

We try to help anyone who lives in Winter Park, Maitland, Eatonville or some parts of Casselberry and Orlando. We can help as long as that person can walk unassisted or with a walker and lives in his or her own home or apartment. He or she does not have to be a parishioner. Please contact Scott Linderman at (407) 628-1324 or scott@stmargaretmary.org for more information. If you would like to volunteer for this ministry, we would love to talk to you. Contact Pegge Stickel at pstickelcct@aol.com or (407) 629-9699.

Family Promise

You can play a key role in helping those families by volunteering to help for the next group of four families who arrive on April 23rd.

If you would like to help by staying with the families while they are here by setting up or taking down their living spaces, or by doing laundry please contact Mary Ellen

May at Mmay151162@aol.com or (407) 718-2405. If you would like to help by cooking dinner, please contact Melissa Bunkers at melissawbunkers@gmail.com or (407) 484-5116.

Lenten Opportunities

Lent begins with a mark on our forehead that identifies us not only as Christian, but as Catholic Christians entering a season of special significance in our faith journey. As we pray, fast and give alms during the 40 days leading to Easter, we dive deeply into our humanity while meditating on the supreme sacrifice of Jesus. Participate in as many of the liturgies, studies and service opportunities as you can this Lenten season. For a four-page, color brochure of suggestions for Lenten devotion and service opportunities at our parish: Click Here

Baby Basics

The Baby Basics Ministry provides diapers to poor, working parents of children under the age of three who live in Maitland, Eatonville or Winter Park. Parents are working yet they still qualify for WIC, a supplemental nutrition program for poor women, infants and children. They are the working poor. This ministry enables parishioners to live out the principles of the Catholic Social Teaching especially the Life and Dignity of the Human Person. As Catholics, "We believe that every person is precious, that people are more important than things, and that the measure of every institution is whether it threatens or enhances the life and dignity of the human person."

The next diaper distribution is Saturday, March 18th, and we appreciate your donations. Size 4, 5 and 6 diapers are currently the greatest need. If you would like to volunteer, please contact Peggy Canary at (407) 497-0654 or macanary@aol.com or Ann Nesladek at annpnes@aol.com.
