What is Nightfire?

Nightfire is a time of PRAISE and ADORATION, where we invite all to come and light a candle around the Blessed Sacrament as an offering of prayer.

Stay for a few minutes or stay a bit longer. Enjoy the welcoming hospitality and prayerful environment.

NIGHTFIRE

Why should you come? St. John Paul II tells us, "Do not be afraid. Open wide the doors for Christ."

Nightfire is an opportunity to spread the Good News of the Gospel, inviting parishioners and passersby to come in to Church to enjoy a peaceful and beautiful space to pray.

Oil of the Sick

The Oil of the Sick is used for a sacrament in the Catholic Church. Traditionally it is olive oil, but any vegetable oil will suffice. The bishop blesses fresh oil each year, but in case of necessity, any priest may bless the oil for this sacrament within the celebration of the rite. In the distant past, lay people anointed the sick, but today only a priest or bishop may administer this sacrament.

The sick were anointed even at the time of Christ. In Mark 6:134, Jesus sent the disciples out to anoint the sick. James 5:14 urges the sick to send for the elders of the church for an anointing. The custom of anointing the sick continued, but for several hundred years only the dying were anointed. The priest prayed for their forgiveness and anointed them on seven different parts of the body.

The custom of blessing oil is ancient. One such prayer dates to fourth-century Egypt. In the Roman Rite, the oil came to be blessed at Mass with the bishop. That Mass, established for the consecration of Sacred Chrism before the initiation rites at the Easter Vigil, attracted the blessing of the Oil of Catechumens and the Oil of the Sick. Today, a bishop blesses all three oils at the Chrism Mass, held shortly before Easter each year in every diocese.

The priest anoints the forehead and the palms of the sick, while praying that God will save and raise them up. The anointing accompanies a prayer for physical and Spiritual healing.

The Oil of the Sick is often kept in a container marked OI for oleum Infirmorum, the Oil of the Sick. Almost every priest carries some in his car.

PRAYER VIGIL FOR ABOLITION OF THE DEATH PENALTY

Thursday Nov 30, 6 pm, Courtyard

Gather in the courtyard & process to the main entrance for a brief candlelight vigil praying for abolition of the death penalty. Praying together outside our church is an opportunity for us to publicly affirm our Catholic belief that "the death penalty is inadmissible because it is an attack on the inviolability and dignity of the person" and live up to the call of to be a church that "works with determination for its abolition worldwide" (Catechism, No. 2267). Visit Catholicismobilizing.org to learn how you can help by praying and advocating for an end to the death penalty.

FEAST OF EPIPHANY CRECHE DISPLAY

Christmas will soon be here. Please help our parish celebrate the Feast of the Epiphany again this year. Do you have a special nativity scene which you would like to share with SMM for three days at the end of the Christmas season? We will again be presenting our nativity scenes (creches) and displaying them with their stories to celebrate the end of the Christmas Season. Will you please lend us your set on Friday, January 5 for the Feast of the Epiphany on January 6 and 7? Your display will join in helping us remember how and why the star led the Three Kings and the world to the Baby Jesus. As in the past years, admission will be free with all donations being provided fully for the benefit our mission parish in Haiti. Look for more information about the display and registering your nativity scene in upcoming bulletins, or contact Lynn Kline at carol.kline1234@gmail.com, or at 407-496-6260. We would really appreciate adding your nativity scene to our display for the weekend. The deadline for registration of your scene is Tuesday, December 27.

CONSIDER CURSILLO

Men's weekend: March 7-10, 2024

Women's Weekend: March 21-24, 2024

(Weekends fill up fast, call soon if interested)

By the Grace of the Holy Spirit we are blessed to have a community of Cursillistas who are actively engaged in spreading the message of God's Love to the world.

Cursillo is a program that encourages Catholics to "bloom where we are planted" and bring the fruits of our faith into the ordinary moments of our everyday lives. It can draw you closer to the Body of Christ - living and growing in our Christian Community.

The Cursillo Journey begins with a three-day weekend experience which invites Catholics to dive deeper into the well of our faith and personally connect with God's unlimited love. Many have said the Cursillo Weekend can only be described as a "life-changing event". More than just one weekend, it is an invitation to a pilgrimage which is lived every day for the rest of our lives - in every place that God chooses to "plant" us. If you are interested in attending a Cursillo Weekend, please contact Andrea Cavallere for more information at 407-998-5678 or andrea@stmargaretmary.org
