ST. MARGARET MARY

Invite
one

Extending a church invitation to those who have left can be challenging. But, it is a rewarding experience. It might just be the nudge they need to come home to their Catholic faith.

All you need to have is empathy, understanding, and a willingness to address their concerns with respect and love. Remember that your ultimate goal is to bring them back to the loving embrace of God's church and to help them grow in their faith.

Before you speak, pray and ask God to lead you in your words. That said, take the first step and extend a warm invitation to those who need it. You might casually ask: "We are going to the 9:30 am Mass Sunday, you are more than welcome to join us if you want. We would love to have you worship with us." Or, "Would you like to join me for Mass and dinner?" This is the time to share why you go to church, why it is important to you and how it has made your life better. The key is to get them there and let Christ do the work. Show them through your words and example how faith in Jesus has made your life better.

Do not be afraid to reach out to those who have left. Invite them back to experience the joy and fulfillment that comes from being a part of a supportive and loving church community. Know that you are doing God's work in welcoming back the lost sheep.

Let's seize this moment during the Advent season as a great opportunity to "invite one back".

ANNUAL CRECHE DISPLAY

Do you have a special or unique creche, or nativity scene, which you would like to share with SMM for three days at the end of the Christmas season? Our Epiphany Celebration this year will again be presenting creches and displaying them with their stories to celebrate the end of the Christmas Season. Will you please lend us your creche on Friday, January 5 for the Feast of the Epiphany on January 6 and 7? It must be a free-standing display that does not need to attach to a wall. Your display will join in helping us remember how and why the star led the Three Kings and the world to the Baby Jesus. As in the past years, admission will be free with donations being accepted to benefit our mission parish in Haiti. Look for more information about the display and registering your creche at the parish website at stmargaretmary.org/nativity-scenes or contact Lynn Kline at 407-496-6260. We would really appreciate adding your creche to our display for the weekend. The deadline for registration of your creche is Tuesday, December 27.

"Let my prayer arise before you like incense..."

Incense may be used at the following Christmas Masses: 9 pm on Christmas Eve, 11 am on Christmas Day. It may also be used for Epiphany on January 6/7. For those of you who have allergies or a sensitivity to incense, you may want to consider participating in the other Masses at which incense will NOT be used. It will also never be used at the 8 am Mass on a regularly scheduled weekend.

SPOTIFY PLAYLIST FOR THE 6 PM SUNDAY EVENING MASS MUSIC

To help with participation in the sung prayer, look in your weekly SMM

email on Fridays for the Spotify link to listen to music that will be sung at the 6pm Mass during the Advent Season. Our liturgies are not complete without participation from you in both spoken and sung prayer. Listen to the music prior to Mass to familiarize yourself with it to make it easier to sing on Sundays.
