ST. MARGARET MARY

Invite
one
Back

"It can be very painful when a loved one is separated from the faith. However, many of the saints and other holy men and women felt that same pain. The Holy Spirit endowed them with the wisdom to reach out with the truth of the Catholic faith in a respectful, appealing, and effective manner. There are resources available to aid in your evangelization based on the wisdom of these holy people. This wisdom can change negative attitudes toward the Catholic Church or help bring someone out of indifference and into the light of truth.

Pray, pray, pray for the souls of those who are away, and share your faith "with gentleness and reverence" (1 Peter 3:15) with those you know, whether through your personal witness, your invitation to Mass, or through the gift of a great Catholic book or CD. Remember that God wants your loved ones home even more than you do! Remain trusting in His love for them and in the Holy Spirit to guide you to serve them as best you can".

From Catholicscomehome.org

There are many great videos at Catholicscomehome.org/your-questions that may answer some questions people have about the Church.

Let's seize this moment during the Advent season as a great opportunity to "invite one back".

❖ Christmas on Monday

WHEN CHRISTMAS falls on a Monday, it causes temptation. In the Catholic Church, we begin celebrating Sundays and holydays on the previous evening. This practice stems from a custom that reckoned the start of the day at sunset. Saturday night Mass provides a convenience for individuals and families making alternative plans for Sunday morning, but it more deeply alerts us to the holiness of the most important day of the week.

Many families find Christmas Eve Mass an ideal way to begin observing this holyday. They gather for the Eucharist at church, then perhaps go home for a meal and exchange gifts. The next morning, their Christmas becomes a day of rest.

But when Christmas falls on a Monday, things get confusing. Two eves and two days intersect. Your parish will probably offer Mass for the Fourth Sunday of Advent on Saturday evening December 23 and Sunday morning December 24. Then on Sunday evening December 24, it will begin celebrating Christmas. That's a lot of church in 48 hours.

You may be tempted to skip a Mass either for the Fourth Sunday of Advent or for Christmas. You may be tempted to go to one Mass on December 24 and count it for both events. Advent is very short in such years, barely over three weeks, and it deserves our full attention. Christmas, of course, is one of the primary celebrations of the Church Year. These two distinctive liturgies draw us into the mystery of the Word Made Flesh.

Yes, it is extra effort to go to church twice during a busy interval of time, but there is no better way to prepare for and celebrate the reason for the season—the birth of Jesus Christ!

ANNUAL CRECHE DISPLAY

Do you have a special or unique creche, or nativity scene, which you would like to share with SMM for three days at the end of the Christmas season? Our Epiphany Celebration this year will again be presenting creches and displaying them with their stories to celebrate the end of the Christmas Season. Will you please lend us your creche on Friday, January 5 for the Feast of the Epiphany on January 6 and 7? It must be a free-standing display that does not need to attach to a wall. Your display will join in helping us remember how and why the star led the Three Kings and the world to the Baby Jesus. As in the past years, admission will be free with donations being accepted to benefit our mission parish in Haiti. Look for more information about the display and registering your creche at the parish website at stmargaretmary.org/nativity-scenes or contact Lynn Kline at 407-496-6260. We would really appreciate adding your creche to our display for the weekend. The deadline for registration of your creche is Tuesday, December 27.

Men's weekend: March 7-10, 2024

Women's Weekend: March 21-24, 2024

(Weekends fill up fast, call soon if interested)

By the Grace of the Holy Spirit we are blessed to have a community of Cursillistas who are actively engaged in spreading the message of God's Love to the world. Cursillo is a program that encourages Catholics to "bloom where we are planted" and bring the fruits of our faith into the ordinary moments of our everyday lives. It can draw you closer to the Body of Christ - living and growing in our Christian Community.

The Cursillo Journey begins with a three-day weekend experience which invites Catholics to dive deeper into the well of our faith and personally connect with God's unlimited love. Many have said the Cursillo Weekend can only be described as a "life-changing event". More than just one weekend, it is an invitation to a pilgrimage which is lived every day for the rest of our lives - in every place that God chooses to "plant" us. If you are interested in attending a Cursillo Weekend, please contact Andrea Cavallere for more information at 407-998-5678 or andrea@stmargaretmary.org

Sacraments

PRAY FOR THESE WHO HAVE CELEBRATED:

Baptism: Robert Victor Rusbosin
Eloise Rose Redfern
Zikora Kachimra Chude
David Arnold Bello

DID YOU KNOW:

A marriage between a Catholic and another Christian is also considered a sacrament. In fact, the church regards all marriages between baptized Christians as sacramental, as long as there are no impediments.

The Catholic Church is not just a beautiful place for your wedding. The Church has the wisdom to help you live out your most noble intentions, to have a forever marriage, rich beyond your dreams. We welcome Catholics and non-Catholics who desire the Sacrament of Matrimony.

Research suggests 2 key factors determine how much a couple will benefit from marriage preparation: how willing the couple is to learn something about Christian marriage and how much each person is committed to the lifelong task of becoming a better person.

For those getting married in the Catholic Church, the highpoint of the wedding day is the wedding liturgy, where the bride and groom become husband and wife in the lifelong covenant of marriage (a sacrament for baptized Christians). Thoughtful, prayerful planning and participation in your Catholic wedding ceremony will bring many blessings to your married life.

The Catholic Church provides three different forms of celebrating the Rite of Marriage. When two Catholics are marrying, the celebration will normally take place within a Mass. The second form, which does not include a Mass, is used when a Catholic marries another baptized Christian. A third form, also outside Mass, is usually celebrated when a Catholic marries someone who is not baptized. The second and third forms are structured around the celebration of the Liturgy of the Word. The couple chooses one of these options based on their particular circumstances in conversation with the priest or deacon who will witness the exchange of consent, often called the vows.

We are excited to accompany you wherever you may be on this journey of discernment or engagement. Please contact the Family Life Office or any of our priests to discuss your unique situation.
