

A Prayer

Lord Jesus,

Your Presence fills us with hope and joy.

You are the human voice of the Father,

Teaching us, Healing us, Forgiving us.

In pouring out Your life for us,

Even to death on the cross,

You opened the gates of resurrected

life to all people.

Now, today, in this Eucharist

We encounter You anew.

You draw us into communion with You,

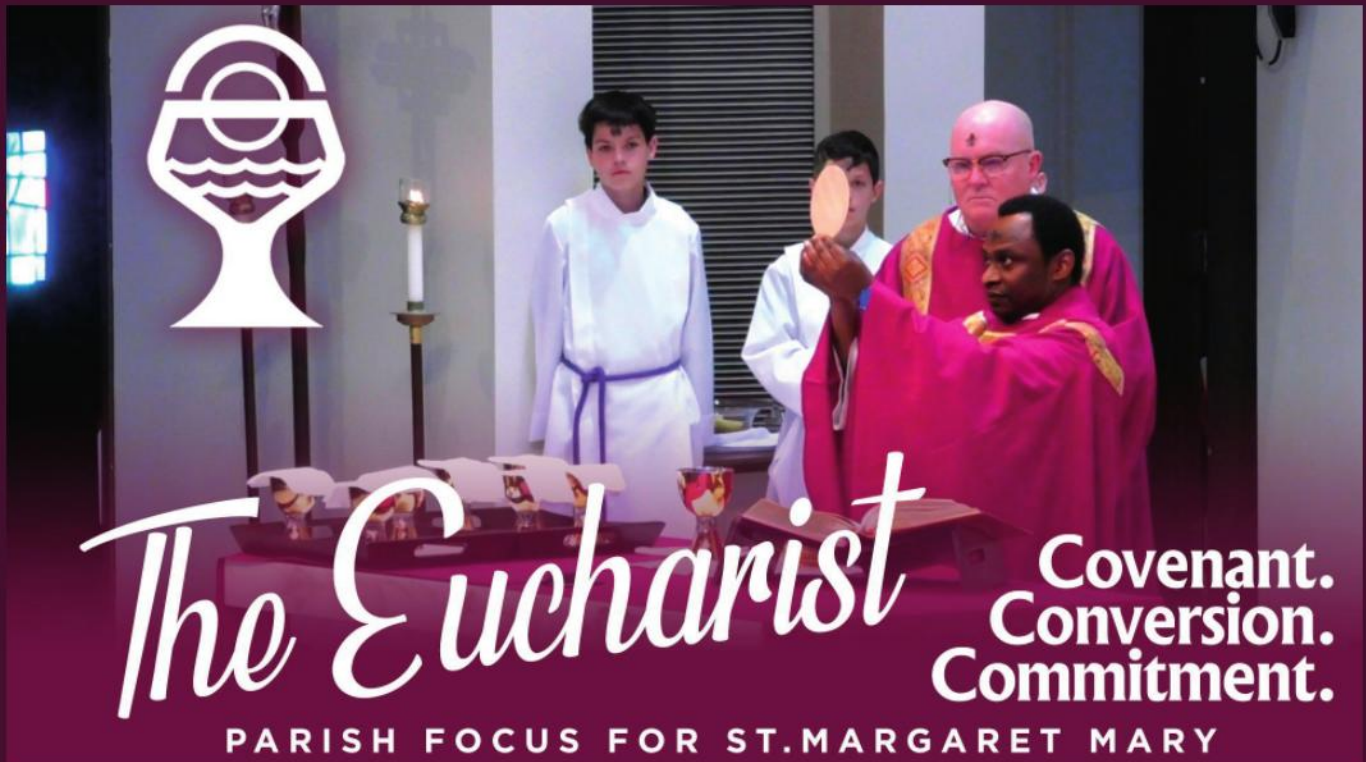

Transforming us through your Body and Blood.

Stay with us, Lord.

Be our nourishment and strength.

Send us forth as servants to the world

And witnesses of your Eternal Love. Amen.

Life in the Eucharist

RETREAT

The Eucharist

We might easily agree that Lent is not just about giving up things. But do we sense the depth to which we are called? The fact that we can even think of doing anything good is because God has taken the initiative and first loved us. That initiative is so strong it can't be broken. The Scriptures call it a COVENANT, a word we will hear throughout Lent. "I will write it upon your hearts" says Jeremiah. Even when we fail, God's covenant with us endures. We are repeatedly gifted with merciful kindness.

Beginning with God's Covenant doesn't work in a magical way though. Rather, Lent supplies us with a whole battery of support and instruction about how to respond to love. We make room in our lives for God's presence. We empty ourselves of the little things... and the big things ... that keep that loving covenant from affecting us. Above all it's our hearts that are changing. We notice it in very concrete ways – in prayer, in fasting, in reaching out to those in need. All this "heart work" and "hard work," this response to covenant during Lent, is CONVERSION.

Our conversion is not a one-time experience either. It is lived out over time, and requires repetition. It actually requires COMMITMENT. With commitment, God's covenant becomes part of our character. It expresses who we are.

The Eucharist unfolds these three realities for us so that we can be united to Christ's self-giving and become one with Him. Our journey this Lent is to say yes to:

Covenant – Conversion – Commitment.

LET US PRAY FOR THOSE BORN INTO ETERNAL LIFE ...

Joseph Gardner
Ursula Baldwin

THE 1ST SCRUTINY

Our 14 Elect are in final preparation for Baptism and Sacraments of Initiation at the Easter Vigil. This Sunday, the Elect will celebrate the first of three Scrutinies at the 9:30 Mass. In these rites, the Elect, along with all of us, are called to 'scrutinize' or look closely within ourselves to identify the distractions that keep us from a life with Jesus. We can then look to Christ to heal those weaknesses and strengthen all within us that is good, right, and just. Like the woman at the well, Jesus promises all of us Living Water so that we will thirst no more for only he can truly satisfy the longings of our heart.

FIRST COMMUNION PREPARATION

- First Eucharist retreat will be held Saturday, March 9 for registered students. More information will be emailed to our families.
