

Surrender.
Be Christ.
Share Christ.

The Eucharist

PARISH FOCUS FOR ST. MARGARET MARY

The magnitude of God's love is fully reflected in Christ's self-emptying, humility, and obedience. Humility is considered to be a defining characteristic of our Christian identity, following the example of Christ, who did not come to be served but to serve and to give His life as a ransom for many (Mt 20:28).

The readings of this last part of the ordinary time focus on active faith, humility, and service. Strong faith in Christ requires total surrender to God's will, following the example of Christ's self-emptying. The choice to surrender to Christ must be firm, and this calls for sacrifice and commitment like the poor widow in the Gospel who gave all she had.

Surrendering to God does not necessarily mean giving up all our resources, free time, hobbies, friends, etc., but it means emptying ourselves and trusting in God's promises to direct our lives as those called to be One in Christ. When we empty ourselves, we are filled with the grace of the Holy Spirit and are empowered to serve others.

Sharing Christ with everyone helps us to be doers of the word and not hearers only. This is what St. James referred to as faith that proves itself in action, and that is what Christianity is all about. Yes, what truly shows that we are bearing witness to the mercy of God is that we are called to be One in Christ, and we cannot be One in Christ unless we surrender ourselves to Him so as to share Him with others.

Therefore, the Eucharistic theme for this last part of the Ordinary time calls us to ...

“Surrender. Be Christ. Share Christ”
