

Surrender

The magnitude of God's love is fully reflected in Christ's self-emptying, humility, and obedience. Humility is considered to be a defining characteristic of our Christian identity, following the example of Christ, who did not come to be served but to serve and to give His life as a ransom for many (Mt 20:28).

The readings of this last part of the ordinary time focus on active faith, humility, and service. Strong faith in Christ requires total surrender to God's will, following the example of Christ's self-emptying. The choice to surrender to Christ must be firm, and this calls for sacrifice and commitment like the poor widow in the Gospel who gave all she had.

Surrendering to God does not necessarily mean giving up all our resources, free time, hobbies, friends, etc., but it means emptying ourselves and trusting in God's promises to direct our lives as those called to be One in Christ. When we empty ourselves, we are filled with the grace of the Holy Spirit and are empowered to serve others.

Surrender. Be Christ. Share Christ.
