PARISH FOCUS FOR ST. MARGARET MARY

The Holy Seasons of Lent and Easter present a profound opportunity to deeply reflect on the mystery of our salvation as those Called, Gifted, and Sent. Recognizing that the Death and Resurrection of Christ form the axis around which Lent and Easter revolve, these seasons remind us that discipleship entails embracing self-emptying and total surrender (Phil 2:6-11), sacrifice, and a commitment to live for God's glory and a call to serve others. The Lenten period, serves a dual purpose. Beyond preparing us for the Easter festivities, it also prompts us to re-evaluate our relationship with God, beckoning us toward renewal and transformation.

The readings in Lent encourage our focus on the Eucharistic theme, One with Christ: Surrender, Trust, and Empowered to Serve.

Surrender is rooted in deep trust that God is good, loving, and has a greater plan for our lives, even when we don't fully understand it. As we journey in faith, we are called to entrust ourselves fully to God's unwavering love and faithfulness. This trust enables us to embrace the unknown, confident that God is always present, guiding us through life's challenges, even when the path ahead is unclear. During Lent, we are invited to "go deeper" with God, letting go of self-interest and surrendering to God's will as Jesus modeled for us during His 40 days of temptation in the wilderness. Through His Temptation, Passion, Crucifixion, Death, and Resurrection, Christ teaches us the acts of total surrender, trust in God, and selfless service to others.

As we journey through the 2025 Lenten Season that culminates in the Easter celebrations and extends to Pentecost, let us remember that our call to serve and bear witness to the world cannot be fully realized unless we are united with Christ. As Pilgrims of Hope in this Jubilee Year, and as those Called, Gifted, and Sent, may we be inspired to embrace the needs of others, to serve them with compassion and kindness, and to share the Good News of Jesus' Resurrection.

Encountering THE SEASON

Lent for the Family

First Sunday of Lent (C)

Deuteronomy 26:4-10

Romans 10:8-13

Luke 4:1-13

Dear Family:

Read the reflection about beginning the journey, and discuss the “Ponder and Pray” questions and prompts, thinking about how Our Lord is calling you to act. Then consider the challenges of the “Live It” section, have fun with the family activities, and dive into the visio divina prayer exercise.

The Journey Begins with Jesus and Mary

This Lent, we are invited to embark on a journey with Jesus and Mary as Jesus sets his face toward Jerusalem (see Luke 9:51). This path represents the final steps toward his sacrifice, a journey of divine love and mercy. Though the Gospels don't explicitly mention Mary's presence alongside Jesus, her deep love for her son suggests she would have remained close, witnessing his ministry and accompanying him in spirit.

Imagine walking with Mary as the crowds gather to hear Jesus. She stands quietly, her eyes fixed on her son, aware of the conversion happening in the hearts of the apostles, the Pharisees, and the sinners on the fringes. Mary, who knows Jesus better than anyone, notices things others miss—his gestures, his focus, and the way he loves each person before him. She tugs at your elbow, gently nodding toward Jesus, reminding you to fix your gaze upon him.

“ We cried to the LORD the God of our fathers,
and the LORD heard our voice, and saw our affliction,
our toil, and our oppression. ”

—Deuteronomy 26:7

Holy Mother and Child by Mike Moyers

As we walk with Mary this Lent, we learn from her unwavering trust in God's plan. Her maternal gaze helps us to see Jesus through her eyes, drawing us closer to him. Mary's radical availability to God, her complete surrender, and her compassionate heart challenge us to make ourselves available to God as well.

This Lent, ask yourself: Will I walk with Mary and Jesus? Will I allow her to guide me deeper into the mystery of God's love and mercy as I journey to the Cross?

To read more about beginning the journey with Jesus and Mary, see The Ascension Lenten Companion: Walking with Mary to Jerusalem.

Ponder and Pray

- As you imagine walking with Mary alongside Jesus on his journey to Jerusalem, what emotions do you feel? How do you relate to Mary’s quiet trust during this time?
- Mary’s trust in God’s plan is unwavering. Do you struggle to surrender to God, and how might you follow Mary’s example of availability and trust?
- As Mary points you to Jesus, what distractions in your life prevent you from fully focusing on him this Lent?

Live It

This week, walk spiritually with Jesus and Mary. In prayer or quiet reflection, ask Mary to help you see Jesus through her eyes—paying attention to his presence in your life. As you practice your Lenten sacrifices of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving, reflect on how you can make yourself more available to God as Mary did. Daily, pray: “Mary, help me walk with Jesus today.”

Visio Divina

Spend time reflecting on the image of Mary and the Child Jesus. Jesus appears to be making an offering to the Father, and Mary is gently watching over him.

Question 1:

What stands out to you in this image?

---

---

Question 2:

How does Mary’s presence in the scene speak to her role as both mother and disciple?

---

---

---

Question 3:

As you reflect, ask God to reveal what he wants you to offer this Lent. What might Jesus be inviting you to surrender to the Father?

---

Fun for the Family

During the journey with Jesus and Mary, create a family activity where you “walk” through Lent together. Plan a family walk, during which each person shares one thing they want to surrender to God this Lent. Let this be a time of reflection and connection, allowing each family member to express how he or she can walk more closely with God.

For free videos and downloadable resources featuring Lenten Companion: Walking with Mary to Jerusalem with Fr. Mark Toups, scan this code with your camera. This bulletin’s reflection by Fr. Toups and “Family Fun” were adapted from Lenten Companion.

Catholic Social Teaching

FL Bishops Advocate Against Scheduled Execution

Acknowledging the immeasurable suffering endured by victims Betty Dick & Toni Neuner and their family, The Catholic Bishops of Florida sent a letter to implore the Governor to stay the execution of their killer on March 20. Factors they share include that:

- The dignity and unalienable rights of every human are not annihilated by even gravely evil acts. It is better for the people of Florida to punish severely without themselves acting to kill.
- Life imprisonment without parole is a severe punishment which also serves to protect society.
- Life imprisonment has the added value of permitting repentance and conversion

Our governors encourage us to pray for the family of these victims and all victims of violent crimes, for an end to the death penalty, for Edward James and all those on death row, and for Governor

FL Legislature is in Session March 4-May 2 Contact your Legislators about Issues that Matter to Catholics

The Florida Conference of Catholic Bishops ask us to advocate for state policies that matter to Catholics, including issues such as hunger and housing, the death penalty and prison conditions, immigration, and access to healthcare. Our Church offers 'Seven Themes of Catholic Social Teaching' - Life & Dignity of the Human Person; Call to Family, Community, and Participation; Rights & Responsibilities; Option for the Poor & Vulnerable; The Dignity of Work and the Rights of Workers; Solidarity; Care for Creation - as core values that inspire us to put our faith into action. ## Outreach & Opportunities to Serve

ST. MARGARET MARY CATHOLIC CHURCH
FAMILY PROMISE

Thursday, March 13, 11 am-12 Noon (Antioch)

How can you help our parish host families experiencing homelessness? Guests are housed in our Family Life Center 4 times each year, and many volunteers are needed. Some parishioners act as hosts, who spend time with our guests, offering companionship and hospitality for parents and their children. Other volunteers setup or takedown living and sleeping areas or tidy up the common spaces. There are even roles done at home, like preparing a meal or washing linens. We are in particular need of overnight hosts - Can you 'sleep for Jesus' 3 or 4 nights per year? Come to our 1 hour session to learn how you can be prepared to help during our next Family Promise week. Contact FamilyPromiseSMM@gmail.com to register for the session.

Food Pantry Requests

Please consider donating the following items that are needed for one of our local food pantries. We currently supply pantries at the Farmworkers of Apopka, Hope Community Center, Redeemer Lutheran Church and the Winter Park Neighborhood Center for Families.

- Canned meats (chicken, tuna, ham, pork)
- pasta (bagged or boxed)
- cereal, pancake mix/syrup, jam/jelly
- mac/cheese
- soup
- peanut butter
- carrots/mixed veggies
- cookies & crackers

Please remember that these are for the homeless and they are not able to maintain large packages. Single serving sizes would be much appreciated.

Sacraments

Let us pray for those celebrating the Sacraments ...

Baptism

Zoey Elizabeth Ryan

Chloe Kamiko Cumberbatch

Marriage Chadd Ryan & Kristine Burns
Kyle Nicholl & Kerry Bruso

And for those entering eternal life

John Wilding
Peter Reddy

Congratulations to our Newest Catholics

Derek Hornberger and Chadd Ryan recently made their Profession of Faith in the Catholic Church and received the sacraments of Confirmation and Holy Eucharist after completing their faith formation through the OCIA process. Please pray for them and for all who seek a deeper relationship with Christ through the sacraments of initiation.

Rite of Sending & Rite of Election

We pray for the 18 catechumens who will celebrate the Rite of Sending at the 9:30 Mass this weekend. This OCIA rite offers our parish community the opportunity to acknowledge their spiritual progress and send them forth with prayer and support to participate in the Rite of Election with the Bishop that afternoon at the Basilica. They will join over 800 others from all over the Diocese who will be entering the Church this Easter!

The Rite of Election is a key moment.

The godparents/sponsors attest to their readiness, and they declare their formal commitment to be initiated into the Catholic Church. They now become the Elect and will enter the period of Purification & Enlightenment as they begin final preparation to be baptized and receive the sacraments of Confirmation and Holy Eucharist at the Easter Vigil.

First Communion Preparation

The first session of our First Eucharist retreats will be on Saturday, March 15 at noon. Registered students and parents should report to the Church. Please refer to your confirmation email for more information.

Support

Surviving Divorce–Support group

Register now for our next Hope and Healing program for those affected by divorce. Mondays starting March 10, 6:30-8:30 pm (Holy Grounds)

Surviving Divorce is a nationally acclaimed program that accompanies people on their journey using weekly video, personal reflection, journaling and small group sharing. For the newly separated and divorced AND those still struggling with issues many years later.

Cost: $10. Includes a Personal Workbook and snacks. Please complete the registration online at: stmargaretmary.org/divorce-support-group/

Surviving Spouses

Monday, March 24 at 11am.

You are invited to join other widows and widowers for the purpose of bringing together the members of our parish who have lost a wife or husband. The group offers an atmosphere of support and understanding with encouragement through sharing and prayer.

For more information please contact Patrick Demers 407-998-5659
