Advocate Against Executions in our State April 30 Execution

Florida put more people to death than any other state in 2025 and has already executed 6 people this year. A 7th execution is scheduled April 30th. Our faith calls us to actively work for an end to the death penalty. “The death penalty is inadmissible because it is an attack on the inviolability and dignity of the person and she works with determination for its abolition worldwide”(Catechism, 2267). Templates to write to the governor about this issue are available at catholicismobilizing.org/our-work/death-penalty/executions/. The Florida Bishops sent the governor a letter opposing each execution in our state and invite us to do so as well. Visit flaccb.org/flcan-take-action.
