

The Parable of the Sower and the Seeds

Some seed fell on rocky ground ...

Some seed fell among thorns ...

*But some seed fell on rich soil, and produced fruit,
a hundred or sixty or thirtyfold.*

Marian Consecration – Begins July 13

The Structure of the 33-Day Consecration

The preparation is often divided into phases: emptying self, knowing self, knowing Mary and Jesus. On the 34th day, the participant makes the formal act of consecration, often coinciding with a Marian feast day.

What resources do I need? Participants can use any one of the following resources:

- Booklet “33 Day Preparation for Total Consecration to our Lord” Meditations from the writings of St. John Paul II and Mother Adela Galindo. A limited supply of these books is available through the parish for $7.00. Email karen@stmargaretmary.org to purchase a book.
- 33 Days to Morning Glory by Father Michael Gaitley
- Preparation for total Consecration to Jesus Christ Through Mary by Father Hugh Gillespie
- Servants of the Pierced Hearts YouTube Videos (bit.ly/33DayPlaylist)

Is it Complicated? What do I need to do?

- Spend 5-10 minutes a day for 33 days using the resource you choose as a guide to read, meditate, and pray in preparation for formal consecration.
- It is recommended that you go to confession prior to the consecration date or within 7-10 days following the consecration.
- Final act: Say the consecration prayer is a group or individual. The group prayer often happens after the Mass on a Marian feast day and includes a blessing by a priest. Our parish-wide Marian Consecration event will be on August 15 – the Feast of the Assumption of Mary. Details will be provided to registered participants.

What if I miss some days or fall behind?

- Get back on track and combine a couple of days into one.
- Know that it is your spirit of commitment and surrender to Mary that is needed. She knows life happens.

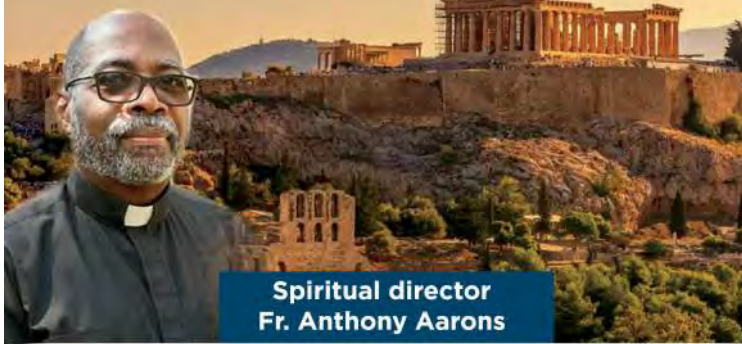

You are invited to join fellow parishioners for a 33-day preparation for consecration to Jesus through Mary. The preparation begins on July 13, and we will celebrate a group consecration on August 15, the Feast of the Assumption of Mary. Each participant will purchase their own preparation materials from the recommended list below. A limited number of preparation booklets are available for purchase through the parish for $7.00. To register or purchase a preparation booklet, please email karen@stmargaretmary.org.

What is Marian Consecration

The 33-day Marian consecration to the Blessed Virgin Mary is a spiritual practice rooted in Catholic tradition, calling believers to dedicate themselves to Jesus through Mary. Saint Louis de Montfort advocated that true devotion to Mary ultimately leads to a closer relationship with Jesus. Consecration to Mary means entrusting her with one's entire life, so that she may lead the soul more perfectly to Christ. Consecration to Mary does not surpass our love and devotion to Jesus. It enhances it. No one loved Jesus better than his mother. We ask her to show us the way to be more unified with her son.

Catholic Social Teaching

Prayer Vigil on the Eve of an Execution

Monday, July 13 at 6 pm (Chapel)

Catholic teaching seeks justice informed by mercy and compassion and calls for an end to use of the death penalty. Please join members of our Peace & Justice Ministry for a prayer vigil on the eve of an execution in our state. We will pray for a greater respect for human life, and in particular for those who will be killed this month in Florida, their families, families of their victims, people working on death row, and for all those affected by executions. Visit Catholicismobilizing.org for more information on prayer and advocacy to end the use of the death penalty.

Life Rosary

Every Tuesday, 9:15 am at the All Women's Health Center, 431 N. Maitland Avenue, Altamonte Springs. Our purpose is to pray for women considering an abortion, to offer well written pamphlets explaining where free help is available. For more info or questions please contact the Family Life Office at 407-645-0284.

Mustard Seed Commitment Challenge 16th Sunday of Ordinary Time

Jesus tells us, "The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed that a person took and sowed in a field. It is the smallest of all the seeds, yet when full-grown it is the largest of plants. It becomes a large bush, and the 'birds of the sky come and dwell in its branches'" (Mt. 13:31-32). How can small acts bear great fruit for our lives and the lives of those around us? Mustard Seed Commitments are concrete actions such as changes in lifestyle or habits. What modest but sustainable commitment can you make this month to live out Catholic Social Teaching more fully? Visit the parish website for more information and suggestions that relate to major themes of Catholic social teaching.

Protect our Haitian Neighbors

The crisis facing Haiti means there is "no realistic opportunity for the safe and orderly return of people to Haiti at this time" and "we as a nation cannot turn a blind eye to such an injustice and the impossible choices it will create for families and communities." (Bishop Cahill - USCCB Committee on Migration). Forcibly returning thousands of families to Haiti at this moment would not only endanger their lives but would further destabilize Haiti itself. You may have seen our Catholic Bishops' call to action 'Call on the U.S. Senate to Protect Our Haitian Neighbors' about the moral crisis involving termination of TPS for Haitians. Both the Florida and the U.S. Bishops websites offer a quick way to take this action: Visit flacsb.org/flcan-take-action & <https://www.usccb.org/take-action>.
