

May the road rise to
meet you,
may the wind be always
at your back,
may the sun shine warm
upon your face,
and until we meet again,
may God hold you in the palm of His hand.

IN LOVING MEMORY

29 May 1934 – 05 September 2026

CHARLES JOSEPH
MCMENAMIN, SR.

THE FUNERAL MASS

St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church

09.11.2026

PALL BEARERS

Patrick J. McMenamin II, Timothy C. McMenamin, Thomas M. Brady III, Pierce K. McMenamin, P. Grant
Bryden, James R. Lyle III

PRELUDE

Ave Maria, P. Grant Bryden

GATHERING & ENTRANCE

Amazing Grace

WORDS OF REMEMBRANCE

Patrick J. McMenamin

LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading: Patrick J. McMenamin, II

Responsorial Psalm

Second Reading: Colleen R. Lyle

Gospel Acclamation

Gospel

Homily

Prayer of the Faithful: Allison M. Struk

LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

Offertory Hymn: Be Not Afraid

Offertory: Kristen E. McMenamin, Bryce C.
McMenamin, Maegan C. Hanehan

Eucharistic Prayer

The Lord's Prayer

Sign of Peace

Lamb of God

Holy Communion: Let There Be Peace on Earth

FINAL COMMENDATION

RECESSIONAL

In Paradisum

REMEMBERING A BEAUTIFUL LIFE

Charles J. McMenamin, Sr. lived a life rooted in faith, family, love, and the simple things that matter most.

He believed that family came first. More than anything, he cherished the time spent together —
the conversations, the laughter, the stories, the traditions, and the memories made around the people he loved. He understood that life's greatest blessings were not found in what we had, but in who we had beside us.

His Irish heritage was an important part of who he was, carried through generations in tradition, humor, pride, and a deep appreciation for where he came from. He carried those values with him throughout his life and passed them along not through grand gestures, but through the way he lived. He was a man of faith who understood the importance of love, loyalty, kindness, and being there for the people who mattered. His greatest joy was not in recognition or accomplishment, but in knowing that the people he loved were together, happy, and cared for.

The memories he leaves behind are more than moments in time. They are stories that will continue to be told, traditions that will continue to be shared,
and lessons that will continue to shape generations
to come. We love you always Dad & "POP"